

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Wylla M. Duncan has been employed at the Sully Buttes Telephone Cooperative, Inc. in Highmore, South Dakota, as office manager; and,

WHEREAS, Wylla has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Wylla is a devoted mother to two children and grandmother to six; and,

WHEREAS, On March 31, after 32 years of service to the Sully Buttes Telephone Cooperative and the entire rural telephone industry, Wylla is retiring and taking time to travel, read, crochet and play cards; and,

WHEREAS, After 32 years of service to the Sully Buttes Telephone Cooperative and the entire rural telephone industry, Wylla is retiring and, on May 5, 1989, there will be a retirement party for her to express the cooperative's appreciation for her years of quality service to its members; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
